

3 SIMPLE STEPS TO INCLUDING A GIFT IN YOUR WILL TO LIBERTY VICTORIA

Step 1

Think about what's important to you. Would you be happy to support a range of civil liberties and human rights issues? Or perhaps there's one area in particular you'd like to support.

Step 2

Decide what type of gift you'd like to leave:

- Residual gift – leave the remainder or a percentage of your estate once family and friends have been provided for. (Many supporters choose to make this type of gift because it keeps its value over time.)
- A fixed specific gift – such as real estate, shares or cash amount.
- Whole or part of your estate – you can leave your entire estate or any part of your estate to Liberty Victoria.

Step 3

When you visit your solicitor to write or change your will simply make sure you include:

- The correct registered name:
Victorian Council for Civil Liberties Inc
- Liberty's ABN: 23 236 210 735

“The fight that is never done”
E.M. FORSTER

“FOR ME IT’S JUST THE RIGHT THING TO DO”

“What doesn’t appeal to me is unfairness. I grew up in Ireland, so I had a first hand view of the abuses of civil rights that were perpetrated there.

And I guess my politics are about fairness and equality and Liberty fights basically on those fronts.”

Long time Liberty member Thomas Kane has included Liberty Victoria in his will

“I WANT A JUST AND FAIR SOCIETY”

“I have included a gift in my will to Liberty Victoria because, for me, success isn’t only about business and financial rewards. It’s also about helping to create a just and fair society.

I have experienced injustice first-hand. In my teenage years I watched friends and neighbours unjustly brutalised by the authorities. And then it happened to me.”
